

Spencerville Evensong Concert Series Presents:

The Brass of the Potomac

Steve Bulla, director

PROGRAM

Roller Coaster Stephen Bulla

The Piper O' Dundee Kenneth Downie
Randi Bulla, horn

The Higher Plane Stephen Bulla
Michael Delaune, soprano cornet

Ave Verum Wolfgang Amadesu Mozart

American Hero Bruce Broughton

INTERMISSION

Post Bellum Rhapsody Erik Leidzen

Donnegal Bay Paul Lovatt-Cooper
Barry Bocaner, baritone solo

Simple Gifts Traditional
arr. Ray Steadman-Allen

Celestial Morn Leslie Condon
Willie Clark, tuba

Mid All The Traffic/Shenandoah Traditional
arr. Leonard Ballantine

Praise The Lord With Drums & Cymbals Sigfrid Karg-Elert
arr. Norbury
Mark Willey, organ

Armed Forces Salute Stephen Bulla

ABOUT THE ENSEMBLE

The Brass of the Potomac is comprised of over 30 professional musicians from around the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area pulling its talent from the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force. BOTP is an all-volunteer group based in Northern Virginia, performing full-scale concerts in schools, community arts centers and worship centers.

In 2009, the Brass of the Potomac recorded a compact disc entitled “American Rhapsody.” You can find more information about this recording, as well as purchase it, by visiting their website:

www.brassofthepotomac.com

A free-will offering will be received following the concert this afternoon. The proceeds go towards the expenses of the concert series. Your generosity is appreciated.

A reception will take place in the fellowship hall following the concert. Refreshments are served. All are invited and welcomed for some friendship and fellowship.

Spencerville Evensong Concert Series
www.evensongconcerts.com
16325 New Hampshire Ave
Silver Spring, MD 20905